Navigate Loves Glamping

Queenstown, New Zealand (February 2010)

For those planning the ultimate camping experience that does not involve pitching a tent, the Queenstown luxury lodge Remarkables offers an eco-friendly and extremely hip overnight escape deep into the New Zealand Southern Alps.

Just 20 minutes by helicopter from the Queenstown lodge base, Remarkables offers exclusively to just one couple at a time, their remote safari-style cabin. Located deep in the 65,000 acre Walter Peak High Country Station you are accompanied by a qualified high country professional guide and your personal chef/housekeeper for the night. This truly does define glamping (glamorous camping).

Whether you feast on local delicacies and famed Otago wines enjoying the spectacular views, try your hand at fly-fishing or commune with the wildlife, Cascade (that's the name of the cabin) offers a luxurious taste of glamping but with flushing toilets and hot showers.

And with environmental credentials, covering everything from solar power, a wood burner fire to rainwater collection you can do it all guilt free.

Your choice of a gentle but visually spectacular 3-4 hour forest hike out or text for the heli or horses to pick you up.

Packages start from NZ$4,450 per person twin share for a 3 night package. 1st and 3rd night at Remarkables Lodge. 2nd night at Cascade with heli transfer in, professional guide and chef/housekeeper. Also includes breakfast, lunch and dinner. Fly-fishing, horse riding, heli transfer out and additional nights at Cascade on application.

Domestic and international marketing and promotions of Remarkables Lodge is managed by Navigate Oceania. For more information or for graphics, contact Karine Thomas on +64 9 307 3633, or email karine@navigateoceania.com or visit www.remarkables.co.nz
